Groundbreaking ceremony and sponsor run in the supporting program

Grand Prix. In a few days, the 37th FIS Grand Prix in Hinterzarten begins. In addition to the sports highlights, spectators and fans can expect a varied supporting program.

On Thursday, the German Ski Association invites you to a public press conference at 1:30 pm in the VIP tent in the Adler ski stadium. Guest speakers include Klaus-Michael Tatsch, OC President and mayor of Hinterzarten, as well as the national coaches Stefan Horngacher and Andreas Bauer, sports director Horst Hüttel and Martin Schmitt.

On Saturday at 3 pm the sponsor run of the "Running Dragons" takes place in the Adler ski stadium. Junior ski jumpers and Nordic Combined athletes of the local training group (SC Hinterzarten, SC Langenordnach, SC Waldau and SZ Breitenau) run for one hour on a 400 meter circuit. In advance, the young athletes organized sponsors who donate a fixed amount per round for urgent investments of the training group.

At 4 pm, the ground-breaking ceremony for the new children's lift will follow, as a very special moment of this year's summer ski jumping event. The lift will make the climb up the K15 and K30 hill easier for young jumpers during training. Through different bundles it is possible for sponsors to support the project.

After that, around 4:20 pm, the Black Forest Ski Association will traditionally honor its most successful athletes in the outrun of the Rothauschanze.
