Prevc and Vagul win Europa-Park FIS Youth Cup

Youth Cup. As part of the Europa-Park FIS Youth Cup, 22 girls and 41 boys competed against each other in summery temperatures at the K70 Europa-Park-Schanze.

The Slovenian Nika Prevc, sister of the successful ski jumping brothers Peter, Domen and Cene, won the girls competition with distances of 76.5 and 74 meters (242.1 points). Second and third placed her teammate Jerica Jesenko (239.3 points) and the German Lia Böhme (223.1 meters). Jesenko also jumped furthest of this year's Europa-Park FIS Youth Cup with 78.5 meters in the final round.

Estonian Kalmar Vagul won the boys competition with 75 and 76.5 meters (251.3) ahead of Austrian Simon Steinberger (247.5 points) and Matej Plut from Slovenia (237.4 points).

The award ceremony took place in front of numerous spectators at the outrun of the K95 hill.
